In exercise of the power conferred by Section 3 of "The Sringeri Jahgir Settlement Regulation, 1897," the Government of Mysore, with the approval of the Government of India, are pleased to direct the following modifications in regard to Rules VI and XV of the General Inam Rules of 14th December 1867, in so far as the same may be applicable to the Agrahar Inams in the Sringeri Jahgir :—

(a) Where the grant partakes of the nature of an Agrahara inam, the conditions implied by such grant, viz., the keeping up of the Agrahara house and the residence in it of a Brahman fulfilling the objects of the original grant, shall be enforced.

(b) Subject to the above rule, all Inams in enjoyment of grantees' heirs or of alienees claiming by virtue of alienation by grantees or their heirs strictly within the powers expressly conferred by the sannad and to the extent therein expressly laid down, shall be confirmed free.

(c) Inams in the hands of Brahmans holding under an alienation in excess of powers granted, and limits laid down, expressly by the terms of the original grant, shall be confirmed on a quit-rent of one anna for every rupee of assessment.

(d) Such enfranchisement shall carry with it the power to alienate to any Brahman whatever, but not to a non-Brahman.

(e) It shall be within the option of the Inamdars dealt with under rule (a) to enfranchise their inams by the imposition of a quit-rent and extend their powers of alienation as provided for in rules (c) and (d).

(f) Inams in the enjoyment of non-Brahman alienees, when such enjoyment shall be proved to have commenced more than fifty years before the date of these rules, shall be confirmed on half quit-rent, such enfranchisement carrying with it the power to alienate to Brahmans only.

(g) Inams as above but enjoyed by non-Brahman alienees for a period less than fifty years shall be confirmed on a quit-rent of twelve annas for every rupee of assessment, such enfranchisement carrying with it the power to alienate to Brahmans only.

(h) Future alienations of inams which shall not conform to the conditions of the present settlement, shall be liable to be cancelled and the inams resumed; and such act of resumption shall at all times be enforced by the Jahgirdar.

(i) All inams granted for the performance of any religious service either at the Matt or elsewhere shall be confirmed subject to the condition of the proper performance of such service, either by the original grantee or his heirs or his alienees, provided such heirs or alienees are fully competent and eligible to perform such services.

(j) In all cases where such services shall cease or shall not be performed, it shall be competent to the Jahgirdar to resume such inams and make other efficient arrangements for the performance of the said service.

(k) All acts done and orders passed by, the Jahgirdar under these rules shall be appealable to, and liable to be revised by, the Government of Mysore, whose decision in any case shall be final.
